FAQs

What is the best time to climb Kilimanjaro?

The best time to climb Kilimanjaro is during the dry seasons, which are from late June to October and from late December to March.

Do I need to have climbing experience?

While previous climbing experience is helpful, it is not required. A good level of fitness and proper preparation are essential.

What kind of accommodation should I expect?

You can expect camping accommodations at designated sites along the route, equipped with tents and basic facilities.

How many porters will be with us?

The number of porters depends on your group size and the equipment needed. Generally, there will be sufficient support to carry all gear and supplies.

What if I don't reach the summit?

While we aim for summit success, the health and safety of our trekkers are the priority. Guides will assist you in making informed decisions.
