After breakfast, prepare for another exciting day in Saadani National Park. Embark on a morning game drive in search of animals you might have missed the previous day. This amazing park is not only a habitat for a variety of wildlife but also offers breathtaking views of the Indian Ocean. After your game drive, return to your lodge for lunch before checking out. Begin your journey back to Dar Es Salaam, where you'll arrive in the late afternoon, concluding your memorable safari experience.

FAQs

What should I pack for the safari?

It's recommended to pack lightweight, breathable clothing suitable for warm weather. Bring a hat, sunscreen, insect repellent, and comfortable walking shoes. Additionally, a pair of binoculars and a camera will enhance your experience. Don't forget to carry any personal medication or essential items you may need during the trip.

Is the safari suitable for children?

Yes, the safari can be suitable for children, especially those interested in wildlife and the outdoors. However, it's important to consider the age and temperament of your child. Please inform us beforehand so we can arrange the best experience possible for families traveling with younger guests.

Are park fees included in the price?

Yes, the package price includes all necessary park fees for Saadani National Park and scheduled activities during your stay. However, any extra activities or visits to additional parks may involve separate charges. Be sure to inquire about specific fees related to optional experiences you may wish to undertake.

What type of vehicle will be used during the safari?

During the safari, you will be transported in a comfortable, well-equipped 4x4 vehicle specifically designed for game drives. These vehicles provide excellent visibility for wildlife viewing while ensuring a smooth and enjoyable travel experience throughout your safari adventure.

Can I modify my itinerary once booked?

We understand that circumstances can change. While we will do our best to accommodate your requests, any modifications to your itinerary should be discussed with us as soon as possible, ideally before the trip, so we can arrange necessary adjustments.
