Itinerary

Day 1	Departure from Dar Es Salaam Meals: Lunch
Begin your journey with a private transfer from Dar Es Salaam to Bagamoyo. The coastal drive is scenic and offers glimpses of local life. Upon arrival, check in at your accommodation and enjoy lunch at a local restaurant. After lunch, embark on a guided tour of Bagamoyo's historical sites, including the famous Old Fort and the Catholic Museum, which showcases the town's cultural heritage. The evening is free for you to relax by the beach or explore the vibrant local market on your own.
Day 2	Explore Bagamoyo and Return Meals: Breakfast
Enjoy breakfast at your hotel. Afterward, join a local guide for a morning visit to the Bagamoyo Fish Market, where colorfully adorned boats bring in fresh catches daily. Experience the hustle and bustle of life as local fishermen bring their fresh seafood to sell. After exploring the market, it's time to return to Dar Es Salaam, where you'll arrive by early afternoon, concluding your enriching 2-day safari adventure.

FAQs

What should I pack for the trip?

For this trip, pack light and comfortable clothing suitable for warm weather. Include sunscreen, sunglasses, a hat, and a camera to capture the beautiful scenery. If you plan to swim, don't forget your swimwear! Personal items like medications and toiletries are also essential.

Are meals included in the package?

Yes, the package includes meals as specified in the itinerary. You will enjoy lunch on the first day and breakfast on the second day. However, any additional meals or personal dining experiences outside of this must be covered at your own expense.

What is the best time to visit Bagamoyo?

Bagamoyo can be visited year-round, but the best time is during the dry season from June to October. The weather is pleasant and ideal for outdoor activities and beach time. However, visiting during the rainy season can offer a quieter experience and lush landscapes.

Is this tour suitable for families?

Absolutely! This tour is family-friendly, with activities that can be enjoyed by all ages. Children will learn about the history and culture of Bagamoyo in an engaging way while also spending time on the beautiful beaches.

Do I need a visa to enter Tanzania?

Yes, most travelers will need a visa to enter Tanzania. It can be obtained online prior to your trip or on arrival at the airport. Be sure to check the specific visa requirements based on your nationality before departure.
